AMERICAN CITY

95010530 - $16.95

Zaimont's first multi-movement composition, written at age 12, showcases a portrait of New York City with tempos that range from fast and springy to lilting and quite slow. The five original movements appear here almost entirely as first composed, and are now followed by a new sixth movement, inviting the toccata finale to dash headlong to a firm close.

CHAMBER MUSIC

Kenneth Frazelle (Notevole Music)

TRIO (Violin, Violoncello & Piano) Score & Parts

90780070 - $54.95

Drawing its inspiration from such thematic elements as water, dust, and light, The Trio was commissioned by Music@Menlo. The first two movements of the piece carry a weighty and introspective feel, and are contrasted by a vibrant and optimistic light in the third and final movement.

WIND ENSEMBLE

Roberto Sierra (Subito Music)

ALEGRÍA

Transcribed for Wind Ensemble by Mark Scatterday of Eastman School of Music, Alegría (in English: "Happiness"), was inspired by the playful mood and 6/8 meter pattern often found in music from Central and South America, as well as the Caribbean. Out of a simple pulse and simple folk-like tunes evolve a complex web of harmonies and rhythmic interactions that often times dissolve into a fast vortex of sound to resume again to the initial playful mood. The harmonies too follow a similar path of evolution: from simple consonances to colorful dissonances.

Score - 92010016 - $24.95

Score & Parts - 92010015 - $100.00

ORCHESTRA

Nancy Galbraith (Subito Music)

ZELO (String Orchestra)

Commissioned by the Three Rivers Young Peoples Orchestras for its 30th Anniversary concert, "Zelo" for string orchestra was written with one idea in mind: to create a vigorous and energetic work that would celebrate thirty years of joyous and youthful music-making. The title, meaning 'zeal' or 'energy', is thus dedicated to the Three Rivers Young Peoples Orchestras in honor of their celebrating season.

Score - 90880140 - $20.00

Set of Parts (8-7-6-5-4) - 90880141 - $100.00
